

PATIENCE

REFLECTION & DISCUSSION Questions

VIDEO: "FOSTERING FAITH AND CONNECTION TO GOD: PART 1"

- What are some things you can try or have tried to create a desire for God's Word in your child(ren)?

What is your biggest frustration in talking with your kids about God?

What is your biggest fear in talking with your kids about God?

What are some ways in which you can overcome those frustrations and fears?

- When it comes to talking to your kid(s) about God, which area do you think is needing the most attention: being yourself, growing yourself, or sharing yourself?

VIDEO: "FOSTERING FAITH AND CONNECTION TO GOD: PART 2"

How consistent are your special family times and family devotionals?

What are some obstacles you find to having a great family devotional?

What can you do to help those times be more special?

What are some milestones you celebrate and spiritual traditions you have as a family?

When you talk to your kids about God, what is the conversation like?

What kinds of things do you talk about?

What are some roadblocks that keep you from serving and ministering together as a family? How can you overcome them?

How consistently are you praying for your child(ren)?

Is there a compass point that you need to give attention to this next month?

What is one thing you can do to focus on that area?

